The majority report, prepared by Representative S. F. Prouty of Iowa and signed by him and Representatives Redfield of New York and Berger of Wisconsin, is. from beginning to end, a severe indictment of the business methods of the companies and of the underwriting firm of Tuttle, Wightman & Dudley, Inc., which controls the underwriting and stock selling of the two concerns.

The minority report of Chairman Johnson, of the committee, is a strong defense of the companies. It was written with full knowledge of the contents of the majority report,

Both reports completely exonerate George W. Ingham, District Superintendent of Insurance, from all charges made against him.
